Meatery 24 - Featuring Beef & Burger (EST. 2016)

Steakkunde

Im „Meatery 24“ kommt nur bestes Fleisch auf den Tisch, doch WAS MACHT EIN GUTES STEAK AUS? Ein Steak stammt vom Rind! Es versorgt Sie mit Proteinen, Kalium, Magnesium, Eisen,… Die bevorzugten Klassiker aus dem Steakhaus sind Fleischscheiben aus dem Filet. Filet-Steaks werden überwiegend kurz und mit hoher Hitze auf den Punkt gebraten oder gegrillt. Festere und größere Teilstücke brauchen bei der Zubereitung etwas mehr Zeit. Sie kommen auch aus der Hochrippe, dem Zwerchfell oder der Brust. Man verwendet gut abgehangenes, gereiftes Fleisch, das quer zur Fleischfaser geschnitten wird. Die Marmorierung - das ist der Anteil intramuskulären Fetts - entscheidet wesentlich, wie saftig und geschmacksintensiv Ihr Steak am Ende auf dem Teller landet. Wir wünschen Ihnen einen guten Appetit!
